

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE FOR UNDERGRADUATES (REU) PROGRAM

CISTAR's (Center for Innovative and Strategic Transformation of Alkane Resources) REU program will match undergraduates with faculty and graduate student mentors to do cutting-edge research on areas such as catalysis, separations, process design, decarbonization and electrification. Students will be part of a research team with collaborators from across the five universities and with corporate partners in the energy sector for information sessions, tours and informal mentoring.

<https://cistar.us>

